DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION CRITERIA

It is recognised that some individuals face additional barriers to establishing a career in the screen industries.

In order to encourage diversity and inclusion within the sector, we particularly welcome applications from people who consider any of the following to be a barrier for them:

- having a disability or long term health condition
A disability is defined in the Equality Act 2010 as a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term impact on a person's ability to carry out day-to-day activities. This includes progressive and long-term conditions from the point of diagnosis.
- having a learning difference
- ethnically diverse
- living in a geographical area in Wales where distance and/or availability of transport limits access to professional training
- carers
- a female (or identifying as female) applicant who is aiming to specialise in directing or the technical areas of film and TV.
- Being from a disadvantaged socio-economic background that impacts or has impacted your career progression
